TABLE OF READINGS FOR THE CURRENT SEASON
Epiphany (January 6, 2015 - February 15, 2015)

DAILY LECTIONARY READINGS FOR YEAR B NOW AVAILABLE VIA LINK-OUT: Daily readings expand the range of biblical reading in worship and personal devotion by providing daily stations for the full three-year cycle of the Revised Common Lectionary. These readings complement the Sunday and festival readings. Thursday through Saturday readings help prepare the reader for the Sunday ahead; Monday through Wednesday readings help the reader reflect on and digest what they heard in worship. You can also find the readings by looking for the "DAILY" link on the Sunday and festival scripture text pages; it is in the box on the right hand side of the screen.

Bread recipe

Eucharist Bread Recipe

Preheat oven to 400 degrees.

- In a bowl mix:
  - 4 cups of whole wheat flour
  - 4 tsp of DOUBLE ACTING baking powder (or 8 tsp of single acting baking powder)
  - 2 tsp of salt

Make sure ingredients are thoroughly mixed because it will affect the taste of the bread.

In a separate container mix thoroughly (I put them in a container with a lid and shake):
- 3/4 cup water
- 3/4 cup milk
- 3/4 cup honey
- 3/4 cup vegetable oil

Gradually add the wet mix to the dry ingredients mixing them together with your hands (this will be very, very sticky). You’re shooting for a ball of dough that’s cohesive, but not too sticky. This may mean that you don’t add all the wet ingredients or if your dough is just a sticky mess add a bit of flour.

Knead the dough once you have a ball. Once you’ve

WHAT WE MAKE

WHO WE ARE
POWR Model

Prior to the first planning session

1. Send text/emails to the planning team members.
2. Gather resources.
3. Assign a scribe to take notes at the meeting.

Thinking about the text - here are some questions to guide the conversation:

1. What words and phrases do you hear when you read the texts aloud? What images and themes are evoked? What surprises you?
2. What emotions are generated by these readings? How do you feel (confused, anxious, convicted, angry)?
3. What can the themes and images look, sound and feel like (bright, dark, loud, lonely, smooth, jagged, etc.)?
4. What other senses are engaged by the text?
5. How might we understand these images and themes in the context of the liturgical season?

Concrete Ideas

1. What sounds do you hear in worship this day? Do the music, body? contemplative? festive? what words and phrases from hymns and songs come to mind?
2. What gestures and movements are summoned by our reading of the texts? A solemn procession? dance? Moving to the altar rail for prayer?
3. What visual expressions are suggested by the texts? Bonfires? An arrangement at the entrance? Or the window stuff? How will we arrange the space in which we worship?
