Strickland’s Handwritten Letter

"It does not appear, why the seven first leaves, which are part of a Popish Missal according to the use of Sarum, have been bound up with this form of common prayer..."

General Description

- Imprinted in London in the year 1549 by a printer named Edward Whitchurch (1500–1561)
- The 7th edition of the first prayer book of Edward VI
- Strickland acquired this item 240 years after the printing date
- Strickland has put a lot of time and effort into reviewing this item
- Gives an overview of the English Reformation